

LAST CHANCE @ THE OK CORRAL
Competitive Trail Ride
November 6-7, 2010

NATRC TYPE "A" (2 DAY) - OPEN, NOVICE & CP
60 Rider Limit

STILLWATER, OK
Lake Carl Blackwell

Ride the beautiful fall colors of LAKE CARL BLACKWELL. Enjoy open fields with splendid views and traverse old roads from the 1920's and 1930's to enter wooded areas of oak, redbud and pine along the shores of a 3500 acre lake located in north central Oklahoma. Fall brings variety as the Red, yellow and evergreen reflect on the lake. <http://www.lcb.okstate.edu/EquestrianTrails.htm>>

CAMPING: The campsites are in an improved permanent equestrian campground with some electric sites, showers and bathrooms nearby. Other features are a camp store and fishing areas. There are several water hydrants and horse wash racks. Horses may use sliding tethers; tree savers are required.

MEALS: Because of a management change at Lake Carl Blackwell we are unable to offer the meal deal at This time. Stay tuned we are working on it.
